Prayer for Priests and Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, please grant to Your faithful servants, the grace and strength to carry out Your mission for the church each day. Keep our priests close to You and continue to inspire them to serve others in Your Holy Name. Please help to inspire men who are called to a priestly vocation to answer Your call and participate in the fullness that You have planned for them. Amen.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 30 & October 1, 2023

A man had two sons: he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I am going, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?"

A BIG THANK YOU

On behalf of the CWL, I (Linda Zazuliak) and my co-organizer MaryLynn Safronetz would like to thank all the volunteers who put in a long week organizing for the two day sale and working during the sale and to our clean up crew and truck drivers who took the remaining clothing to Parkland Crossings. A big thank you to all who donated food for the week, it was very much appreciated and enjoyed. For the spouses who supported us in every way and most of all to Father Michel for allowing us to have the hall for the week. We are so thankful for having a very giving and generous parish and community. From the Rummage Sale we brought in approximately $4000. The remaining clothes have gone to Parkland Crossings which will be distributed to our community and beyond. God bless you all and thank you again for all your help which made the Rummage Sale a success.

Catholic Commentary on The Chosen aims to help Catholics actively engage with the immensely popular TV series depicting the life of Christ. Now available into Season Three.

Watch our overview video on Matthew Ch. 1-13, which breaks down the literary design of the book and its flow of thought. In Matthew, Jesus brings God's heavenly kingdom to earth and invites his disciples into a new way of life through his death and resurrection.

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

The Augustine Institute has adapted its award-winning series The Search and modified it for teens. The Search is an acclaimed evangelization series hosted by speaker and author Chris Stefanick. This adaptation for middle and high school students is called The Search Begins, a new series inviting teens to consider the deepest questions of the human heart and explore the meaning and purpose of life.

Although nine-year-old Ociece loves roaming Mississippi's 1898 rural landscape, her widower father (Keith Carradine) feels that Ociece lacks a role model to help her become a "young lady." So, Ociece boards a train to North Carolina, to be raised by her Aunt Mamie (Mare Winningham). Although Ociece meets heroes like the Wright Brothers and the U.S. President, she ultimately proves that she, too, is capable of greatness in this heartwarming, rewarding film.

As the talent contest approaches and our friends prepare their special dance. Paul gets hurt and has to leave the contest. When Lukas takes him to the doctor, Paul learns from the example of Padre Pio about the importance of having a clean soul and offering his sufferings to God.
