Prayer for Priests and Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, please grant to Your faithful servants, the grace and strength to carry out Your mission for the church each day. Keep our priests close to You and continue to inspire them to serve others in Your Holy Name. Please help to inspire men who are called to a priestly vocation to answer Your call and participate in the fullness that You have planned for them. Amen.

Reflections on the Sunday Readings: 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

*They tie up heavy burdens...and lay them on people's shoulders.
(Matthew 23:4)*

Today we read how Jesus accused Jerusalem's religious leaders of laying "heavy burdens" on people by imposing more and more rules on them. But wasn't he doing the same thing? After all, he's the One who told people, "Take my yoke upon you" (11:29). Isn't a yoke—a contraption made of iron and hardwood—a burden as well?

Maybe so, but anyone who spent time with Jesus saw that the burden he spoke about was completely different—and much more attractive!

First, Jesus said that the burdens imposed by these scribes and Pharisees "nullified the word of God" (Matthew 15:6). They consisted of rules and fasts and tithes that were nowhere to be found in the Law of Moses. Some of them even contradicted God's will for his people. But Jesus' yoke is meant to help us "fulfill" the word of God (5:17). It's a yoke that calls us simply to love him and love our neighbor (22:34-40).

Jesus also said that his opponents placed burdens on people but did not "lift a finger" to help them (Matthew 23:4). By contrast, Jesus used the image of a yoke to describe his "burden." A yoke is an instrument that links two oxen together so they can help each other bear the load. And that's the point: Jesus wants to yoke himself to us so that he can walk beside us and help to lighten our burden.

Finally, and most important, the burdens of Jesus' opponents were made up of human regulations and restrictions, of additional fasts and tithes, that could not bring people closer to God. But the exact opposite happens when we accept Jesus' yoke. We come into an ever deepening relationship with him. And that relationship fills us with the joy and comfort of his own Spirit.

So come to Jesus today. Let him yoke himself to you in a bond of everlasting love.

"Jesus, thank you that your burden is light!"

Adopt-a-Family

Fall is a beautiful time of year and it's a little hard to think about Christmas...but it is just around the corner! There will be a need for Christmas Hampers and Adopt a Family will be part of the Christmas program. If you, or your organization are interested in being a part of the program, please call us. Tell us how many families and what size family you wish to purchase groceries and gifts for. (a list of groceries required will be put in the bulletin at a later date) You will then personally shop for your family. Once families have been approved to receive a hamper, we will contact you with the ages of the children and the number in the family.

Please contact us by phoning Laverne Hudson at 204-572-4677, Lucille Lamb at 204-638-9715, or Blanche Lefebvre at 204-638-5980, or by email at adoptafamilydauphin@gmail.com. We look forward to hearing from you. Let's make sure everyone has a blessed Christmas!

The First Multiplication | Bread of Life | Episode 1
What is the Eucharist? How does Jesus' ministry pave the way for this incredible gift? In this first episode of Bread of Life, Dr. Tim Gray shares insights from Sacred Scripture and dives into the Gospel of Mark's account of the first multiplication of loaves. Dr. Gray shows how Christ's eucharistic teaching is grounded in the Old Testament, provides hope for the reconstitution of Israel, and anticipates the Last Supper.

We all have very real questions about death. What happens when we die? What does Scripture teach about death? How do we prepare for the life to come? Explore the mystery of death, dying, and everlasting life through Eternal Rest, a new offering of the Augustine Institute.

Eternal Rest examines the origin of death, the after-life, and the powerful reality around the sacrament that ushers us into eternal life. Eternal Rest presents the Catholic Church's teaching about death and God's response to it with wisdom and truth, gentleness and compassion, so we can think about and prepare for death in the light of Jesus Christ, the Author of life. We pray that through Eternal Rest, God may give you greater peace, solace, and perspective.

When animals start to disappear at the local zoo, Ryan and his mom are called in to investigate only to be zapped by a mysterious shrink ray that makes them the size of a pecan! Discovering that Bucktooth Becky and her ninja chickens are behind the trouble, miniature Ryan and mom must work together if they are to reach the shrink ray, return to normal size and save the zoo!

Welcome back to the workshop! Join Maggie, Sparky, Doug, and Morty on brand-new adventures! When they face difficulties, Randall and friends are there with songs that encourage them in a life of faith! With guests Ellie Holcomb, Propaganda, Andrew Peterson, Big Easy from the Harlem Globetrotters and many more!
