A Heart of Discussion Being a Disciple In Today's World

Each of us has been called to be a disciple. We live out this calling every time we help another or give of our time in service to our community. As you see, we already live as disciples in the world.

The challenge is to continuously be that disciple in a world that sometimes tells us otherwise. For us to overcome those moments we would rather not be a disciple, we need to reflect on what is more important.

Think about all the problems in the world. We hear of violence, people living without essential needs, and our environment being neglected. What can a person like me do to help?

There are many things we can do. In our daily life we can make choices that help build the world around us. All it takes is one simple kind gesture to change the community around us. That one kind actions leads to another -- kindness is contagious. So, take a deep breath when you are challenged to be a good disciple and remember love always wins over evil.

Jesus told his own disciples that he "came to serve and not to be served" (Mk 10:45). Let us in this last week of Lent learn to be servants of God who want to change the world.

Open

My Heart

Discussion Questions:

1. What are some of the characteristics a disciple should have? What is the definition of a disciple in today's world?
2. What are some things we can do as disciples to change the world around us?
3. What is the meaning of "came to serve and not to be served?"

A Heart of Action

To change our hearts, we need to change our actions. This week try the following task:

Consider a person in your life that you do not like very much. Take the time this week to learn something positive about that person and be a good disciple in your interactions with him/her.

Lenten Thoughts by Saints

Here are powerful and inspiring saint quotes to contemplate and meditate on during lent...

The Divine Heart is an ocean full of all good things, wherein poor souls can cast all their needs; it is an ocean full of joy to drown all our sorrows, an ocean of humility to drown our folly, an ocean of mercy to those in distress, an ocean of love in which to submerge our poverty.” – St. Margaret Mary

“He will provide the way and the means, such as you could never have imagined. Leave it all to Him, let go of yourself. Lose yourself on the Cross, and you will find yourself entirely.” – St. Catherine of Siena

“What does Jesus Christ do in the Eucharist? It is God, who, as our savior, offers himself each day for us to his Father’s justice. If you are in difficulties and sorrows, he will comfort and relieve you. If you are sick, he will either cure you or give you strength to suffer so as to merit Heaven. If the devil, the world, and the flesh are making war on you, he will give you the weapons with which to fight, to resist, and to win victory. If you are poor, he will enrich you with all sorts of riches for time and eternity. Let us open the door to his sacred and adorable Heart and be wrapped about for an instant by the flames of his love, and we shall see what a God who loves us can do. O my God, who shall be able to comprehend?” – St. John Vianney

“Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday.” – Ven. Fulton Sheen

“If you suffer with Him, you will reign with Him. If you cry with Him, you will have joy with Him. If you die with Him on the Cross of tribulation, you will possess the eternal dwelling place in the splendor of the saints. And your name, written in the Book of Life, will be glorious among men.” – St. Clare of Assisi

“When we contemplate the sufferings of Jesus, He grants us, according to the measure of our faith, the grace to practice the virtues He revealed during those sacred hours.” – St. Angela Merici

“Let us love the Cross and let us remember that we are not alone in carrying it. God is helping us. And in God Who is comforting us, as St. Paul says, we can do anything.” – St. Gianna Beretta Molla

“He who seeks not the Cross of Christ seeks not the glory of Christ.” – St. John of the Cross

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Please remember the Church financially. We still need your donations as our bills don't stop for COVID. A highly recommended option is to sign up for Pre Authorized Chequing. We thank you for your donations and for thinking of your parish during this time.
