After an Abortion - Steps Toward Healing

The Catholic Church's position on abortion is clear. In the magisterial document Donum Vitae (The Gift of Life) the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith affirmed that, "The human being is to be respected and treated as a person from the moment of conception; and therefore from that same moment his rights as a person must be recognized, among which in the first place is the inviolable right of every innocent human being to life," (Sec I.1) Direct abortion, or the intentional killing of a human being living in the womb, is always seriously immoral because as persons the right-to-life is the most basic and fundamental right we possess. The persons involved do have the recourse to Jesus' great mercy in the sacrament of reconciliation. However medical experts recognize that a person may have further need of healing from post abortion trauma. The following article deals with that reality...

1. Recognize that the road to full recovery can take time and effort. God's forgiveness can be had instantly, but sorting out your life and your feelings, overcoming the ever-present temptation to give in again to despair and doubt--these take time.
2. Recognize that it is normal and good to mourn the loss of a loved one. Just as mourning the loss of a parent or spouse takes time, so does mourning the loss of an aborted child. In the case of abortion, the mourning process is often cut short and never completed because of denial or feelings of guilt which block the mourning process. You must courageously allow the mourning process to get back on track. Accept your grief as normal rather than something which must be covered up or pushed away. Recognize that the pain of your loss will fade as your healing progresses.
3. Recognize that you are not alone. Others have been through the same experience and the same trials. Their experiences and understanding can help you. They want to help you, just as you may want to help others after you have finished going through the healing process. Finding a post-abortion counselor or support group through our list of Post-Abortion Healing Resources may be very helpful to you.
4. Admit your personal responsibility but also recognize that others, too, were involved. Pray for God's forgiveness for both yourself and everyone else who either encouraged the abortion or failed to help you avoid the abortion.
5. Forgive yourself. God does not want you to live a lifetime in mourning. Your sin has been forgiven. You have been made new in Christ. Rejoice in the knowledge that one day you will be with your child in the arms of the Lord.
6. Forgive others. Recognize that they, too, acted out of ignorance, fear, or petty human selfishness. If possible, let them know that you forgive them. Forgive even the abortion providers.
7. Give your children over to the care of God, their Heavenly Father, and the true Parent of us all. Know that they are loved, happy, and well cared for. They, too, desire your joy and happiness. They miss you, but they do not resent or condemn you, because they live in the love and mercy of Christ. Do not try to hold onto them by prolonging your grief; hold onto them by sharing their happiness in heaven.

Garage and Clothing Sale May 26 & 27

If you have donations to be picked up please call the church office or Ernie @ 204 648-4229. We have begun intake and will continue until the sale. It you are dropping items off before May 23 please call Ernie 204 648-4229 or MaryLynn @ 204 648-6779. If you need a pick up please inform us prior to May 20 to schedule you in. If you have items for drop off there will be some-one at the church from 9 am to 4 pm on Monday

May 23, as well as Tuesday May 24 and Wednesday May 25. Our sale is May 26 Thursday 10 am to 6 pm and Friday May 27 9 am to 3 pm. Any time you can give us is very much appreciated. The other heavy time is Friday at the end of the sale packing what's left to go to be dispersed. The end is always busy as the hall needs to be swept and floor washed for Saturdays events. As you know we have many people who donate food to fuel this work. It is true an army marches on it's stomach. Any and all food donations are a great help and thankfully accepted. We serve lunch everyday as well as coffee breaks. At various times throughout the day there are usually approximately 22 people working. It truly takes a parish to stage a successful and profitable sale. May you be filled with God's grace and offer whatever help you can give us. God Bless You.

Funeral Lunches

We are in need of people to help in the preparation of funeral lunches. If you are interested please call Blanche Lefebvre at 638-5980.
