Please help to inspire men who are called to a priestly vocation to answer Your call and participate in the fullness that You have planned for them. Amen.

Life Culture

Lifeculture.ca/Mpower

There are a lot of single moms. There are close to one million single moms in Canada, with over 300,000 of them living in poverty. This is not okay and Life Culture wants to do something about it.

Life Culture wants women to choose life, but it doesn't stop there. We also want single moms to thrive and be able to provide for their children. So we are excited to announce that we have created the Life Culture MPower Education Scholarship Fund for single moms. (The "M" in MPower stands for Motherhood, as in "Empowering Mothers.")

A recipient of this scholarship can use it in ways that are most helpful for her to achieve her education. She may choose to use it for academic tuition, to cover student loan debt acquired while pregnant/parenting, or for family use such as childcare while she is in school or studying.

This scholarship is a tangible way we can support women in choosing life, attaining their education, and providing a better future for their children.

If you would like to donate to MPower Education and help single moms further their education, please email me at susan@lifeculture.ca

Sincerely,
 Susan Penner
 Executive Director
