Reflections on the Sunday Readings: 3rd Sunday of Lent

Scrutiny: a negative-sounding word, suggesting harsh judgment. That's something the Samaritan woman knew well. She'd been married five times; her current partner was not her husband. No wonder she went to the well in the heat of the noonday sun, when no one was around.

Catechumens (those preparing for baptism at Easter) begin three weeks of scrutinies today. Catechumens scrutinize their lives in the light of Jesus' life. But also in the light of his love. That makes all the difference.

The Samaritan woman's encounter with Jesus called her to scrutinize her life. Jesus knew her long history, poor choices, sins. But he knew more, knew better. Because he saw with eyes of love and understanding...saw the real person under all the wrong choices. He knew who she really was, who she had been created to be.

Because of him, she could see that too. She could run to the neighbours who had judged and ostracized her and say: "He told me everything I have ever done." She could face her past and present with courage, not despair, trusting that she could be the person she was meant to be.

In every Eucharist, we are called to face our lives with honesty and courage. To look at our lives in the light of Jesus' life. And to receive the living water of his merciful love.

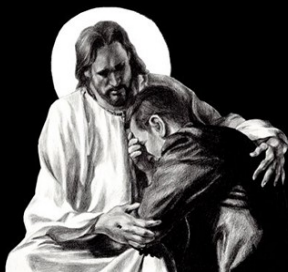

Stations of the Cross will be on Fridays following Mass during Lent. Leading the stations will be the following groups:

Friday, March 10 - CWL & KofC
Friday, March 17 - Parish Council
Friday, March 24 - Finance Council
Friday, March 31 - Couples for Christ (Jet/ Gerry Sarcia)

A Return of The Way of the Cross Tableau

The Way of the Cross, also known as The Stations of the Cross, is a spiritual pilgrimage through contemplation of the Passion of Christ. It grew from imitations of the Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem, a traditional processional route representing the path Jesus walked from the house of Pontius Pilate to Golgotha, the place of Christ's crucifixion. In 2022, a dedicated group of fifteen St. Charles parishioners worked for months to create a 45-minute tableau version video of the Way of the Cross. When uploaded to the St. Charles parish YouTube channel in Lent, it received over 600 views. You will be able to view it again this year from Ash Wednesday (February 22) until Easter. www.youtube.com/watch?v=ETLu_Zz5vZQ&t=639s

Creative Ideas for What to Take up for Lent

1. Get holy water from your church and with your family, use it to say a blessing over each other before starting your day. This could be as simple as saying “Samantha, I love _____ (name something you love about them). God bless you through your day.” Beginning your day with such beautiful messages of love can be powerful.
2. Let your significant other choose—the movie you’re going to watch, the restaurant you’re going to eat at, the way you’re going to spend Saturday afternoon (yes even if it’s with his mother).
3. Take on an attitude of joy. Share that joy with everyone you encounter each day.
4. Want to bring a little more creativity into your life, spend time (even 15 minutes) each day working on a painting while listening to praise music. Let God and the music guide you!
5. Quilt, knit, or crochet one square each day to be assembled into a blanket and given to someone in need.
6. Spend half an hour each day organizing your home.
7. Keep a daily list of the blessings in your life. I highly recommend “Ann VosKamp’s book, 1000 Gifts”. A Dare to Live Fully Right Where You Are, for inspiration.
8. Spend 20 minutes each day giving your dog a belly rub or petting your cat or somehow showing love to your pet. You will both benefit from the attention.
9. While sitting in the school pickup line, say a prayer for your child’s school, their teachers and administrators and all of the students in it.
10. Make your bed every day. Use that brief time to offer up a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God.
