Reflections on the Sunday Readings:

2nd Sunday of Easter - Divine Mercy Sunday

Why did the Lord choose to appear when Thomas wasn't there? Thomas' reaction is not one of jealousy, resentment or even self-doubt. For many, these would have been instinctive responses. Thomas' default was to doubt it happened.

Interestingly, the powerful witness of his most trusted friends was not enough to sway him either. Yet, a week later, he still joined those apostles as they all faced an existential threat, gripped in fear and completely confused about their future. Those he did not believe, he still trusted with his life. Those he doubted, he still felt connected to. Was he one of them after all?

When the Lord did appear to Thomas, Thomas was quick to respond in love and obedience and the Lord was quick to receive him—but not before saying, “Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”

Are you a doubter among believers or a believer who doubts? Just as an existential threat had paralyzed the disciples with fear, so you may be experiencing indescribable fear, unspeakable heartache or blinding confusion. Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Yes, lean on those whose faith can carry you through. But pray for the grace to overcome doubts. The Lord is inviting you to trust him—in all and with all. Believe.

The Shroud of Turin is the subject of a lot of rumors, myths and controversies — maybe you've heard some of them yourself and don't know what to believe. That's why this week I hosted Fr. Robert Spitzer, a Jesuit scientist and scholar on the Shroud of Turin. He offered some amazing facts about the Shroud, including what we can learn about the Crucifixion from what we see on the cloth. We also talked about the infamous carbon dating claims (they've been scientifically debunked).

If you've ever wondered how seriously we can take the Shroud of Turin, you have to see this episode!

Renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II. Featuring the brilliant cinematic artistry of the Augustine Institute's film studio, the vast panorama of God's work of mercy in the world unfolds as a story to be experienced.
