Reflections on the Sunday Readings: 5th Sunday of Easter

It is easy to find ourselves lost in these ever troubled times. There are so many voices about, pulling us in different directions. It is easy to lose our way, be confused about the right course of action, and doubt our sense of purpose as Christians.

In today's Gospel, Jesus hears a similar confusion coming from some of the apostles themselves, who should know better than anyone. Despite all that they have experienced and all that they have heard.

Thomas and Philip are still confronted by feelings of uncertainty and doubt, even given all that Jesus has said and all his life exemplifies.

For us, our uncertainty may stem from having heard the Gospel message so often that we become inured to it and its impact on our lives. Jesus might say to us, as he did to them: "Have I been with you all this time...and you still do not know me?"

Yet Jesus is also quick to allay our fears. He tells us that he has gone ahead to prepare a dwelling place for us in his father's house. He assures us that he will come again to take us to himself, comforting us as we need only remember that Jesus is the way, and the truth, and the life.

Spring is Here!!

Turning our thoughts to plants, it's time to think about beautifying our church grounds once again!

Since it worked so well last year, we'll put it out there again. If you would like to "adopt" a planter to two and fill it with flowers and plants, and take care of them through the season, that would be wonderful! They all looked so beautiful last year, and was great to see so many different ideas for decorating them!

St. Joseph (4 part series)

Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down to reflect on the earthly father chosen by the heavenly Father for his Son, Jesus Christ. This four-part series compares the Joseph of the New Testament to the Joseph of the Old Testament, examines St. Joseph's title as the "Guardian of the Redeemer," and considers why he is the patron of the universal Church and the domestic church.

Finding the Way

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." John 14:6
