Reflections on the Sunday Readings: Christ the King

*He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
(1 Corinthians 15:25)*

The kings who ruled over Israel and Judah were charged with defending their people from neighboring enemies who wanted to destroy them. Many kings had failed in this regard, which is why the people were waiting for a Messiah-King, a son of David who would again build a great nation as David had. Then along came Jesus, a Messiah who told people to love their enemies and turn the other cheek. What kind of a king was this?

In today's second reading, St. Paul shows us what kind of king Jesus is—One who has conquered our true enemies: Satan, sin, and death. Jesus didn't come to win a battle between nations; instead, he came to win a cosmic battle with everlasting consequences. That's why we celebrate him today as "King of the Universe."

Unlike an earthly king, Jesus did not engage his enemies with armaments of war. No, he defeated them by dying on a cross. Through his death and resurrection, he saved not just Israel but all who believe in him (1 Corinthians 15:22). Out of his great love for each one of us, Jesus offered himself up, disarming the devil and draining sin of its power. Now we are forgiven, redeemed, and given the grace to love and forgive others as he has done for us. And though we still see evil in the world, we know that Jesus will destroy "every sovereignty and every authority and power" when he comes again (15:24).

Today at Mass, let's recommit ourselves to living under the reign of this great King. Let's tell him that we are ready to join him in rescuing his creation from the powers of darkness. Our King has already shown us how to do this: by offering ourselves in love to one another. Because without a doubt, love is the most powerful force in the universe!

"Jesus, King of kings, reign in my heart today and always."

A Message from the Finance Committee

You will notice here in the bulletin that you received an update on St. Viator's financial state. Of concern is the fact that we are currently $7000 behind this year in Sunday collections and we are even further behind regarding Sharing God's Gifts. Please keep in mind that whatever we don't raise in the Diocesan annual appeal our parish has to make up for at the end of the year. We realize that and are thankful for every one of you who is donating currently. We understand that times are tough and we are all giving as much as we are able to. If you know of parishioners who are no longer attending, please welcome them to come back to Mass. As our numbers dwindle, so do the donations. If you haven't come for a long time and are watching solely through livestream, please remember that our parish has expenses that must be taken care of and every donation helps. Thank you to all who are currently donating. If we all help, our parish will be here to meet the needs of our parishioners for many years to come. God bless you all.

For Christmas decorating, if anyone has some artificial trees about 2 or 3 feet tall, and are willing to lend them to church, please call the parish office and let us know, or simply bring them in for us. We are in need of about a half dozen. Thank you!

Unto the Least of These

"The King will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'" Matthew 25:40 (NIV)

Mary of Nazareth is an epic motion picture on the life of Mary, Mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Shot in high definition, it was filmed in Europe with outstanding cinematography, a strong cast, and a majestic music score. Actress Alissa Jung gives a beautiful, compelling, and inspiring portrayal of Mary.

The film vividly captures the essence of Mary's profound faith and trust in God amidst the great mysteries that she lived with as the Mother of the Messiah, as well as her compassionate humanity and concern for others, and the deep love that she and Jesus shared for one another. The movie underscores her special role in God's plan for our redemption, her unique relationship with Christ, and the tremendous suffering that she endured in union with his Passion and Death, as well as her serene joy at his Resurrection.

Coming November 17th!
